From a press release issued by Ed Milich:

Guzzipower.com is now online.

Guzzipower.com is a primary source for Moto Guzzi performance, featuring Guzzi-related articles, technical reports, a blog, photo galleries, an online store with racing and performance parts, and mountains of highly competent technical data on Moto Guzzis. Guzzipower is very simply dedicated to helping Moto Guzzi owners with their magical Mandello-made motorcycles.

Got a technical problem or a performance-related question concerning your Guzzi? Get responses from myself and other experienced Guzzi owners, builders and racers at our Discussion Forum, <http://guzzipowered.forumcircle.com> .

This new Guzzipower website is a culmination of my last 15 years as a Moto Guzzi racer, rider, mechanic, fabricator, engine builder and Guzzi-obsessed Professional Mechanical Engineer. Greetings to all the Guzzi friends and fans the world over and.... Forza Mandello!
